

APS-OIP Silent Auction

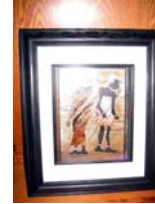

Connecting Knowledge with a Growing World
Sunday, July 31 • 5:00-7:00PM

Donations Available for Bid

as of 7/20/05

Africa

- Shiraz from Stellenbesch, South Africa, donated by Jim Steadman, University of Nebraska. $10 minimum bid.
- Bushman banana leaf art in frame from Cape Town, South Africa, donated by Jim Steadman. $22 minimum bid.
- Shona soapstone sculpture, the Shona people of Zimbabwe are renowned for their stone sculptures. This is a small (~5" tall) sculpture of two "faces," mother and child or two lovers, donated by Alison Robertson, Iowa State University. $5 minimum bid.
- Unframed, traditional "hand painted" African batik, measuring about 28 x 21 inches, colorful with the background in vivid reds, yellows and yellow and five warriors (in black) dancing and jumping during sunset, donated by M. A. "Talo" Pastor-Corrales, USDA-ARS. $15 minimum bid.
- Pillow cover from Tunisia, hand woven from wool in a traditional Berber design. Size: 18 X 34 inches. It has a slit in the back to insert the pillow of your choice, donated by Doug Maxwell, University of Wisconsin-Madison. $17 minimum bid.
- Framed batik from South Africa, donated by Annemick Schilder, Michigan State University. $7 minimum bid.
- Wood carving from Nigeria depicting man blowing drum, donated by Annemick Schilder, Michigan State University. $7 minimum bid.
- Wood serving dish crafted in Nigeria, donated by Annemick Schilder, Michigan State University. $5 minimum bid.
- Local pottery-made coffeepot and four cups from Southwest Nigeria, donated by Annemick Schilder, Michigan State University. $7 minimum bid.
- Woven Asoke cloth from Yoruba tribe in Southwest Nigeria, donated by Annemick Schilder, Michigan State University. $7 minimum bid.
- 3 yards of batik fabric from Ghana, donated by Sally Miller, The Ohio State University.

Antarctica

- No items donated to date.

Continued...

Donations continued

Asia

- Turkish Kilim, donated by Sally Miller, The Ohio State University. $25 minimum bid.
- 5 night stay at the Pine Bay Holiday Resort in Kusadasi, Turkey (<http://www.kusadasihotels.com/pinebay/>), arranged by Tim Momol (UFL) and Dr. Hikmet Saygali (Ege University, Turkey). This is a lovely resort on the Aegean Sea and very near the Roman ruins in Ephesus. The gift certificate (from SETUR, a Turkish travel agency) is for one double room, 5 nights, full board accommodation. It must be used between November 1, 2005 and May 30, 2006. Airfare is NOT included. $400 minimum bid.
- 24" (60cm) genuine pink fresh water pearl necklace from Bangladesh. Pearls are 3/8" (1 cm) in diameter, earrings also included, donated by Sally Miller, The Ohio State University. $25 minimum bid.
- Silk, hand-embroidered purse from Vietnam, donated by Sally Miller, The Ohio State University. $10 minimum bid.
- Rainmaker of Tuas-tuas, made in the Province of Palawan, the Philippines. Palawan is composed of approx 1,700 islands. Considered as the Philippines' Last Ecological Frontier Proclaimed a Fish and Wildlife Sanctuary in 1967 Melting pot of 87 different cultural groups and races There are 52 dialects spoken in this province, donated by Camilla Yandoc, USDA-ARS. $7 minimum bid.
- Silk embroidered Chinese wall hanging, roughly 15"x30", shows scenes of rural life. Silk fabric embroidered by hand, donated by Caitilyn Allen, University of Wisconsin. $12 minimum bid.
- Handwoven belts and decorative coconut shell (with Rice God) made by the Ifugao tribe (the Ifugao tribespeople created and farmed the Banaue Rice Terraces, located in Luzon, the Philippines.), donated by Camilla Yandoc, USDA-ARS. $5 minimum bid.

Australia

- No items donated to date.

Europe

- Ukrainian Easter Egg, eggshell decorated in the traditional Ukrainian style using a process similar to batik, donated by Vickie Brewster, USDA APHIS PPQ. $10 minimum bid.
- Pair of authentic wooden shoes from The Netherlands (says size 39, but closer to 40), donated by Annemiek Schilder, Michigan State University. $12 minimum bid.

Continued...

Donations continued

North America

- University of Georgia denim shirt w/ frisbee (2 shirts; sizes M and XXL), donated by John Sherwood, University of Georgia, $8 minimum bid.
- University of Kentucky “baseball” cap, blue silver/grey and white skip cap with “UK” and “Kentucky” embroidered thereon, adjustable fit, donated by David Smith, University of Kentucky. $8 minimum bid.
- “Common Florida Mushrooms” book by James Kimrough (3 copies available), donated by Gail Whistler, University of Florida. $10 minimum bid.
- PLANT MANAGEMENT NETWORK Online Subscription, donated by PMN. $22 minimum bid.
- Set of 3 APS PRESS Image CD-Roms, donated by APS PRESS. $100 minimum bid.
- APS Membership basket, includes APS hat, post-its, pens, one-year membership, donated by APS Membership Department. $40 minimum bid.
- Basket of "Texas" goodies, donated by the Austin Convention and Visitor’s Bureau. $15 minimum bid.
- Xocolatl Organic Chocolate from Dhoba flavored with chilis, 74% cocoa, four 2 oz. bars, fair trade, donated by Vickie Brewster, USDA APHIS PPQ. $5 minimum bid.
- A bottle of Alto Vineyard wine and a basket with two wine glasses, food, etc., donated by Alto Vineyard. $40 minimum bid
- Logos of Department of Crop Sciences, University of Illinois. $5 minimum bid.
- Framed print of Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) Stetson and Boots by Constable Karen Roblin of the RCMP depicting the stetson and boots of the famous police force, donated by Philip Northover, Manitoba AG, Food and Rural Initiatives. $10 minimum bid.
- Signed copy of "Whistled Like a Bird" by Sally Putnan Chapman including palm tree napkins and stationary, donated by Erin Rosskopf, USDA-ARS and Parties & Petals. $20 minimum bid.

South America

- Gourmet Puertorrican coffee, a favorite of specialty coffee lovers worldwide. Prepared exclusively with Arabica beans grown in the high mountains of Yaueo, Maricao and Jayuya, Puerto Rico’s finest coffee region, donated by Maricelis Acevedo, University of Nebraska. $4 minimum bid.
- Dried and carved gourd from Mexico, donated by George Abawi, Cornell University. $10 minimum bid.
- Carved and painted duck, two wood pieces carved into a duck and beautifully painted in multicolors, from Costa Rica, donated by George Abawi, Cornell University. $10 minimum bid.
- Carved and painted armadillo, pieces of bamboo formed and multicolor painted from Honduras, donated by George Abawi, Cornell University. $2 minimum bid.
- Clay ashtray colorfully and brightly painted, donated by George Abawi, Cornell University. $2 minimum bid.

Continued...

Donations continued

- Guatemala is a country know for its textiles, these bags were made on back strap looms by Mayan women, offered as set, one is 6 x 6 inches and the other is 9 x 11 1/2 inches, donated by Doug Maxwell, University of Wisconsin-Madison. $10 minimum bid.

- Costa Rican coffee from a farm, donated by Jim Steadman, University of Nebraska. $2 minimum bid.
- Book on mushrooms in Costa Rica, Vol. 2, donated by Annemick Schilder, Michigan State University. $7 minimum bid.
- Towels made in Brazil, donated by Juliana Freitas-Astua and Gustavo Astua-Monge, Embrapa Milho e Sorgo. $5 minimum bid.

