

Southern Division APS
Student and Post-Doc Scholarship
(updated 2015)

Student Name:	Advisor/Sponsor:
Univeristy/Affiliation:	SD-APS Member: <input type="checkbox"/> YES <input type="checkbox"/> NO
<input type="checkbox"/> MASTERS <input type="checkbox"/> PHD <input type="checkbox"/> POST-DOC

Question	Possible Points	Score
Application completed? <input type="checkbox"/> YES <input type="checkbox"/> NO <input type="checkbox"/> Application <input type="checkbox"/> Mentor letter
Follow application guidance?	0-1
Application submitted on or before deadline?	0-1
Is the abstract organized, clear, and concise?	0-2
Did the student demonstrate the relevance of the research to plant pathology and/or future benefit to agriculture?	0-3
Is the research innovative?	0-3
Is the narrative statement well-written, clear, and concise? Was the text coherent and ideas well linked?	0-5
Did the student effectively describe academic interests and career goals? Are they relevant to plant pathology?	0-5
Is the student involved in professional activities at his/her home institution, APS, SD-APS, or other relevant organization?	0-5
How well did the student state the relevance of this meeting as it relates to achievement of his/her professional goals?	0-5
Did the advisor/sponsor's letter demonstrate strong support for the student?	0-5
Total (35)

JUDGE: _____ Date: _____